

Additional Smart Start FAQs

60) Does the local or regional board of education special education student population percentage dictate the maximum number of children with an individual education program (IEP) in a Smart Start classroom?

No. A local or regional board of education must treat children with and without IEPs equally with regard to enrollment in Smart Start.

Updated May 20, 2015